"Best Celtic Festival West of Atlanta"

St. Patrick's Day 1 - Friday 16 March

The Cowtown String Band - Celtic Folk (6:00-9:00pm 1st or 2nd floor)

We regard these guys as part of the Pub family and we're delighted to have them perform as part of this year's entertainment. The Cowtown String Band has perfected the lost art of gathering around a couple of mics and playing with heart and humor - ideal for an evening of Celtic celebration.

Jinx - Rock Band (7:30-10:30pm Plaza Stage or 2nd floor)

We believe all the best festivals provide a great variety of music and St. Patrick's is no different.

This is why we asked a bunch of guys who we regard as very good friends and who make up one of the most talented and popular, local bands to headline the day's entertainment. Playing the likes of Tom Petty, Pink Floyd, and the Stones, etc, Jinx put on an awesome show that will rock the downtown!

DJ Party 9:00-Close (2nd floor)

Join DJ Chizzle and show off some of your own Irish jigs.

Friday 16 March & Saturday 17 March

St. Patrick's Day 2 - Saturday 17 March

The Charms - Celtic Rock Duo (3:00-6:00pm Plaza Stage)

We're excited to have these guys return to the Pub. This Celtic Rock Duo is as energetic as they come. Ashley (lead vocals/guitar/mandolin) and Eric (fiddle/keyboards) together create a huge sound that spectators cannot believe is only 2 musicians. Far from traditional, these guys play rock and pop with a Celtic twist - in other words, it's truly Celtic music that "rocks!"

The Mulligan School of Irish Dance Performance (between 6:30-7:30pm Plaza, 1st & 2nd floors)

The festivities wouldn't be the same without Eileen Mulligan and her amazing dance group. Dancing with their hearts that flows to their toes, this Dance Group has performed all over Georgia and has had dancers compete all around the world. A must-see performance - each year, they dazzle everyone!

Robert Boyd - Bagpipes (between 6:00-8:00pm Plaza, 1st & 2nd floors)

Without doubt, one of the stars of last year's festivities. Robert, whose family is originally from Scotland, has been playing the pipes since he was 10 years old. As a Gr 3 solo piper, Robert has won many solo competitions and his performance guarantees to bring out the Celtic passion in us all.

Sgian Dubh - "Alternative" Celtic Band (7:00-10:00pm 2nd floor)

No strangers to the Pub having played the previous two St. Patrick's Day festivals, this "alternative-Celtic" band hails from Marietta. Mixing acoustic and electric modes, this captivating group plays their own unique take on traditional Irish & Scottish music, with pub favorites, rebel songs, Celtic punk, and a few originals to keep things exciting.

Psycho DeVilles - Rockabilly Comes Downtown! (7:30-10:30pm Plaza Stage)

We wanted to finish off St. Patrick's Day with something very different this year ...and boy do we have the perfect band for the occasion. Led by singer/guitarist, Hot Rod Walt, Psycho DeVilles are quite simply one of the best rockabilly bands you will ever see. Formed in 2002, Hot Rod Walt shares the stage with two talented musicians: Paul "Stubbs" Diffin, a true showman from England on the upright bass and Steve "Burnout" Barnett, the hard hittin' punk rock drummer that never runs out of energy. Together the band perform a super high energy show singing songs they like to joke are about hot rod cars and mean women! Trust us when we say you won't want to miss these guys.

DJ Party 10:00pm-Close (2nd floor). Join DJ Jason Sparks and dance the rest of the night away.
